Girl Scouts Install New Club Officers

The Frank Kassebaum family of Compton was host to the Jr.-Sr. Council of Harbor Section last Wednesday night when officers for the ensuing year were installed by Mrs. Elizabeth Brainard, Assistant Field Executive, and Miss Lauris Kassebaum, retiring Secretary of the Council.

Installed were Dorine Pyle, president; Carol Roath, vice-president; and Torrance Senior Girl Scouts, Judy Wright, recording secretary and Peggy Wood, corresponding secretary. The officers were presented with gold trefol pins, a gift from the Harbor Section Committee. The ceremony, which was held beside the fire ring, was concluded with the singing of "When You Make A Promise."

A weiner roast was then enjoyed by all present.

Seniors Say Thanks For 'Swell' Party

Torrance High School graduating seniors of the class of Summer '52, will long remember the all-night after-graduation party this year held at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club.

This week the class and members of the High School P-TA expressed their sincere thanks to the parents of the seniors and the many civic organizations and friends whose combined contributions helped to make the party a success.

Mrs. Grover Van Deventer, chairman of arrangements for the event, announced that plaudits go to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Abramson for again this year donating prizes for the party, and to the following organizations: Senior Women's Club, Rotary Club, Kiwanis Club, Las Vegas Women's Club, Lions Club, Loyal Order of Moose, Senior Class, Torrance High School P-TA, North Torrance Elementary P-TA, Seaside P-TA, Walteria P-TA, Torrance Elementary P-TA, Fern Avenue P-TA, Torrance Police Department, Junior Women's Club, Business and Professional Women's Club, and the Lewellen Press.

Rev. C. Miller to Leave Methodist Church Here

Rev. Clarence E. Miller, for the past three years pastor of The First Methodist Church of Torrance has been appointed to The First Methodist Church in Artesia as of July 1st. Rev. and Mrs. Miller and their family of four children, Clarence Edward Jr., 20, Anna Lee, 16, Ruth Ellen, 12, and Richard Joseph, 8, plan to move out of the Torrance parsonage on next Tuesday July 1st, church officials disclosed this week.

Rev. Miller will preach his farewell sermon on Sunday morning on the theme: "Elevated Thinking." He will be in his new pulpit in Artesia on Sunday July 6.

Bill Bartholomew Installed Prexy Of SPEBSQSA

William Bartholomew was musically installed last Saturday evening as the new president of the Torrance Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America. The music was provided by quartets from neighboring chapters.

Bartholomew, the chapter's second president, succeeded Herb Allen in the club's top spot. Installation ceremonies at the Bettie Thomas Studios, 1215 Crenshaw Blvd., were presided over by Bill Williams, past president of the San Gabriel Chapter and one of the charter members of the founding organization.

Dick DeBusk, secretary of the Far West District and editor of West Tunes, was master of ceremonies for the evening.

Other officers installed were Howard McDonald, vice president; Al Ewalt, treasurer; Howard Coursey, secretary; Herb Allen, district delegate. Installed on the board of directors were Ray Lougee, Francis Lehr and Howard Foster.

The Huntington Park chapter chorus and the Torrance chorus sang several numbers, and the combined choruses sang for the group.

Refreshments were served following the installation.

Robert K. Salyers is national director of the U. S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Veterans' Employment Rights.

Tech Appoints New Science Chairman

Montague Mathew Wade, science instructor at Harbor Junior College, has been appointed chairman of the Division of Natural Science, Raymond J. Casey, director, announced today.

Mr. Wade received his A.A. degree from Pasadena City College, and his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Occidental College. The new division chairman taught at Occidental College before coming to Harbor Junior College in 1950.

When you make up your mind that the world is all wrong, it's time to have your mind examined.
